

Fiction Text Structure Sort

Use the bold words as headers. Sort the phrases under the header in which they belong.

Introduction	Rising Action	Climax
Resolution/Falling Action	The character may create or run into other obstacles or problems	The tension is gone
The main character faces the problem head-on	The character tries to solve the problem	The characters are introduced
Loose ends are usually tied up	The setting is introduced	Winners and losers are decided- the winner is typically the main character or the "good" guy
The character realizes a decision has to be made	The tension is the greatest	The problem is introduced